

Are you a crafter? Join us Saturday, October 15th 2011 for our 21st Pies on the Common “Pies” is an outdoor craft fair held on Framingham Centre Common. We are looking for crafters with original handmade items to sell. We allot our crafters a space approximately 12’ square.

Date: Saturday October 15, 2011
Time: 10:00 am – 3:00 pm
Place: Framingham Center Common, Edgell Road, Framingham, MA
Sponsor: First Parish in Framingham, Unitarian Universalist
Contact: First Parish in Framingham, Attn. Pies on the Common
24 Vernon Street
Framingham, MA 01701

Email: pies@uuframingham.org Telephone: 508.872.3111 (church office)

Registration Fee per space: Before September 15 $50.00
After September 15 $60.00

Registration Deadline: Friday, October 7, 2011

Payment: Make checks payable to First Parish in Framingham and mail to church address above.

Refund Policy: there will be no refunds unless First Parish declines the registration or is unable to offer space due to the weather. (See Rain Policy)

Rain Policy: The fair is held rain or shine. In the event of inclement weather the fair will be held in the Parish House where space is limited. Preference for space will be given to crafters in the order we receive your registration. Refunds will be given only to those who cannot be accommodated inside.

Exhibit Space: On the common: approximately 12 ft x 12 ft space
Inside Parish House: one 8ft square space

We give preference to those who display original hand crafted items. While we are not a juried show, if you have not participated in Pies on the Common recently, please include photographs of items you plan to display and sell. This will help us assign you the most appropriate space.

Please return your application form as soon as possible. We will assign space based on the order in which registrations are received.
